Advice to Get Growing

Dell Technologies is launching a 9-month Entrepreneur Mentoring Pilot, inviting Dell employees, partners, and seasoned entrepreneurs to mentor founders as they scale their business and grow their own skill-set.

We believe in entrepreneurs. Dell Technologies began as a startup rooted in the entrepreneurial vision of a single person. Starting or scaling is a critical time for any business and Dell Technologies empowers entrepreneurs through innovation and technology while supporting the entrepreneurial ecosystem through programs like the Dell Women's Entrepreneur Network (DWEN) and Dell for Startups. Members will have access to a range of resources including mentors from Dell Technologies, our strategic partners, and seasoned entrepreneurs who can advise on a variety of topics that are crucial for growth.

of small business owners agree that mentors have a direct impact on the growth and survival of their business.*

Mentorship for Entrepreneurs

Entrepreneur mentoring is a supportive relationship where an experienced professional provides advice and guidance to an entrepreneur throughout their journey of launching and growing their company.

Key Statistics**

- 20% of new businesses fail within the first two years.
- 45% of new business startups don't survive the fifth year.

Why Mentoring?

- Entrepreneurs who receive mentoring are twice as likely to survive compared to those who do not.***
- 89% of small business owners who didn't have a mentor wish that they did.*
- 80% of mentored businesses have witnessed long term success, growth, and business revenues. ****
- 61% of current small business owners mentor others.*

Who are the Mentors?

We work with experienced professionals and entrepreneurs who are passionate about helping others succeed and are willing to share their knowledge and insights.

Our mentors are from a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences. They have expertise in Legal, HR, Finance, Operations, Sales, Marketing, Engineering, Venture Capital, Program Management, Entrepreneurship, and some are 'Jacks of all Trades'.

We also value soft skills such as empathy and being a good listener, as these are important qualities for effective mentoring.

Mentor & Entrepreneur Matching and Expectations

How does matching work?

- Select entrepreneurs have been invited through DWEN and Dell for Startups to create their profile and select topics that they are interested in.
- Entrepreneurs can browse our catalogue of mentors to book 30-minute conversations.
- Match recommendations are made by the platform based on mentor's profile and entrepreneur's needs. Selected Professional areas, conversation topics, and your profile information will help the matching technology work well.

What is expected of a Entrepreneur to be prepared?

- Fill in your profile information so the mentor knows about you and your company.
- Come to the conversation prepared with clear goals and questions.
- Be open to feedback and look for guidance that help you make informed decisions.
- Show respect and appreciation for the mentor's time and expertise.
- Provide feedback on your conversation after each session to improve the mentorship experience.

When creating your profile, you will have the opportunity to select mentoring topics in two categories - Professional Areas and Conversation Topics. These selections will be used to assist in matching and will be visible to the mentors when they view your profile.

How it works:

2 Easy Steps

1 Entrepreneurs sign up & create a profile

2 Book time with relevant mentors

Dell Technologies Entrepreneur Mentoring is a member benefit to DWEN and Dell for Start-ups programs. Entrepreneurs are given “credits” to sign up for 30-minute 1:1 conversations with Mentors.

- During the onboarding process, Mentors select topics to define the areas that they would like to mentor Entrepreneurs in.
- Entrepreneurs can browse by name, as well as filter by area of expertise or topic.
- After selecting a Mentor, Entrepreneurs can sign up for a conversation using the calendar function that displays the available times on the Mentor’s profile.
- Once booked, a confirmation email is sent to both the Entrepreneur and Mentor with conversation date and time, and the link to enter the conversation. You can also enter the conversation via your profile page.
- The conversations take place on the platform via live video (preferred) or over the phone.

FAQ's

1. How does Dell Technologies Entrepreneur Mentoring work?

Dell Technologies Entrepreneur Mentoring is a member benefit to DWEN and Dell for Start-ups programs and entrepreneurs are given “credits” to sign up for 30-minute 1:1 conversations with Mentors

2. What should I include when creating my profile?

Take time to share information about yourself and your company. In addition to your goals, we highly recommend adding:

- A link to a pitch deck (if you have one)
- Your business plan
- Website

3. Are these engagements long or short-term? What happens after the conversation?

The engagements are short-term in nature. However if you find someone particularly helpful, you can book additional conversations based on their availability.

4. How is feedback collected?

When you complete a conversation you will be asked to provide a rating on the conversation and the mentor that you spoke with. Your feedback helps us learn. These are important, please take them seriously and provide honest thoughtful feedback. Your ratings are private and confidential and will not be shared with the mentor. However if there is inappropriate behavior in anyway we will step in.

5. Can I see how mentors reviewed our conversation?

No, reviews are private and confidential. If there are specific areas of improvement, administrators will reach out and provide feedback.

6. Will I see notes from mentors?

Each mentor will have the opportunity to add to your journal. Journals are visible to you and any mentor that you book with, both past and future. It is also visible on your profile page.

For mentors, Journals are helpful for reviewing notes that another mentor jotted down after speaking with an entrepreneur. The new mentor can better prepare for the conversation, be more efficient, and better understand that entrepreneur.

7. What if I want to engage a mentor as a formal advisor long-term? Does this help me contractually engage with them?

No, this is simply for one-off or short-term temporary engagements. There is no equity exchange, nor contractual engagement for this commitment. This is advisement only and is free to the entrepreneurs.

FAQs

8. What languages are supported?

The platform is in English only. It is expected that calls are in English unless you and the mentor decide otherwise. You can specify your language preference and options (if relevant) in your profile.

9. How are mentors matched?

You can browse our catalogue of mentors to book 30-minute conversations. "Match recommendations" are made by the platform based on mentor's profile and entrepreneur's needs. Selected professional areas, conversation topics, and your profile information will help the matching technology work well.

10. What happens if I need to reschedule a conversation?

If you need to reschedule a booked conversation, email your mentor as soon as possible. Your conversation confirmation and reminder emails both include links to privately message each other and to reschedule your conversation once a new time is confirmed. We do not directly provide personal information unless specifically given permission.

11. What happens if the other participant does not attend the conversation?

If the mentor does not join the conversation by five minutes past the scheduled start time of the conversation, feel free to leave. Please send an email note to the mentor to see if they are interested in rescheduling and complete the review to let us know that the other participant did not attend the conversation.

12. What platform do we meet on?

Your conversation will take place on Teams or the in browser video, based on what the mentor has set as their preferred video call service. Once you book a conversation, you will receive a link via email to join the conversation.

13. What are credits, and how do they work?

Each credit can be used to book one 30-minute conversation with a mentor. You may use your credits to book conversations with different mentors. If unused, your credits will expire at the rate of one per month. You can view your credit balance on your profile page. If you run out of credits, you can email us here to get more credits. Please ensure you have completed all of your reviews before requesting more credits.

14. Who are the Dell Entrepreneur Mentoring Mentors?

Mentees will have access to a range of mentors from Dell Technologies, our strategic partners, and seasoned entrepreneurs who can advise on a variety of topics that are crucial for growth. Mentors will vary in subject expertise and seniority.

Getting Started

Amanda Fornal

Thank you for completing your profile.

You can view and edit your profile at any time by selecting it from the navigation menu. Your profile includes your mentor credit balance as well as any upcoming and past mentor conversations.

Entrepreneur Mentoring is dedicated to helping you benefit from mentorship to become the best leader you can be. We have curated a world-class network of industry mentors ready to help you develop your leadership capabilities and achieve your potential.

You may search mentors by area of expertise and view their profiles before scheduling a 1:1 mentoring conversation via phone or video. Each credit is good for one conversation, and we encourage you to book conversations with multiple mentors.

Conversations are conducted either via phone dial-in or browser-based video conference. Video requires your device to have a camera and a strong internet connection. We support Most modern browsers (e.g. any browser but Internet Explorer).

We strongly recommend that you setup your video camera now, so you will be ready for your first conversation.
